

which would validate his contracts with Indians.

Names the Attorney. "Name the attorney," demanded several members.

"J. F. McMurray," replied Mr. Murphy. The attorney was seated in the gallery at the time.

The House almost unanimously rejected the conference agreement.

When the action of the House was reported to the Senate, Mr. Hale moved that the Senate further insist upon its amendments to the bill, and ask for a further conference.

Mr. Gore re-entered the chamber at this juncture, and obtaining recognition, reiterated his protest against the provision inserted in conference.

Another sensation was created when he declared that the "friend in need" had told him during the conversation of May 6 that "a member of this Senate, a member of the Indian Affairs Committee, and a member of the House Committee on Indian Affairs were interested in these contracts."

Mr. Gore said that he had just seen Mr. Tawney, one of the House conferees, and had asked him who had suggested the provision which was substituted for the original Senate amendment.

"And Mr. Tawney named the very same representative who was mentioned to me on May 6 as being interested in these contracts," exclaimed the Oklahoma Senator. "I understand that this member of the House and Mr. McMurray practically live together in the same hotel in this city."

Sensational Accusation. Senators looked aghast at the disclosures made by the Oklahoma member. The charges, which had been mild at first, piled up in such an alarming manner that even the rush of the last days of the session was not sufficient to minimize the general interest displayed.

The chamber was filled when Senator Bailey exclaimed: "I think the Senator from Oklahoma owes it to himself and to the Senate to give the name of the Senator who was reported to him as being interested in these contracts."

Mr. Gore declined to mention any names, but said that he hoped there would be an investigation of the whole matter, before which he might make the disclosures.

"This is one of the biggest steals ever attempted to be put through Congress," said Mr. Murphy. After naming Mr. McMurray as the man who had been trying to put this scheme through, he said Mr. McMurray had been assisted by George H. Lyon, chairman of the great Republican committee of Texas and national Republican committeeman from that State.

"These gentlemen," continued Mr. Murphy, "have traveled over the Indian Territory, have procured contracts from the Indians, and are now giving to these men who are holding these contracts from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000, and presumably more, and they have done nothing that was worth a cent of the money."

Mr. Murphy, who was once an attorney for the Creek Indians, tonight figured the ultimate amount that should accrue to Mr. McMurray and those associated with him under the 10 percent contract at $20,000,000. This, said Mr. Murphy, is under the Geological Survey estimate, and exclusive of the percentage they would get from the pine lands, which are reserved from allotment.

Declines Charges False. J. F. McMurray, of Oklahoma, declared here tonight that the charges made in the Senate to-day by Senator Murphy reflected upon him in connection with his work on the work of the Chickasaw land and town site cases, were absolutely false.

MAY ESCAPE TRIAL FOR KILLING WIFE

Capt. Scott's voice broke several times as he alluded to his sister's tragic fate.

"I want to see justice done," was the army officer's summing up of his attitude. "That is all I hope for now."

Captain Scott made plain what he meant when he declared that he and his legal adviser would make every effort, in co-operation with the Italian government, to have Captain Scott extradited and tried in Italy for the crime.

Charlton in Jail. When Charlton reached the jail on the Jersey City Heights, he was led into the office of Sheriff J. J. Kelly. There his presence was taken and he was assigned to cell No. 10.

To get to his quarters the youth had to elbow his way through a crowd of some seventy-five miscellaneous prisoners in the ward who paid little attention to the newcomer. Charlton looked around his cell, threw down his derby, pulled off his coat and then stepped out into the corridor and began pacing up and down.

With the other prisoners in the ward he is allowed to walk the corridor when he chooses in the daytime. Charlton's cellmate, the authorities said, is Willie Burke, a seaman, serving a seven-year sentence.

HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE. Formerly convicted of forging deposits Gate City, Va., June 24.—A T. Peterson, stock dealer and farmer, was convicted here today for forging deposits of the People's National Bank for $2,200 and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. He went to Cincinnati and had rubber stamps made, deposit slips printed and an expert to President J. B. Richmond's writing. Failing to pay for the work the Cincinnati people wrote the bank for payment. This led to the bringing of the men to the city, where he was arrested and defeated his scheme.

FORMING NEW PARTY? Roosevelt, Garfield and Pinchot in Secret Conference.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 24.—Theodore Roosevelt held a long talk to-day with James R. Garfield, his Secretary of the Interior, and Gifford Pinchot, the chief forester, whom President Taft deposed. But what they said and what bearing, if any, their talk had on the national political situation, is known only to themselves. Every precaution was taken to keep it a profound secret.

This afternoon the Oyster Bay Pilot appeared with an editorial utterance to the effect that Roosevelt, Pinchot and Garfield were very busy forming a new national party.

Mr. Garfield and Mr. Pinchot left town at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Theodore Roosevelt spent the day in entertaining his guests. Besides Messrs. Garfield, Pinchot and McCormick, he had with him "Jack" Greenway, of Colorado, Minn.; Captain Edward Borein, of California; William McKinley, of Ripley, Okla.; Edward E. Emerson, of Boston; all of whom are Roosevelt comrades—Leslie Tarleton and Claude Tritton, Englishmen, who organized his African expedition; Francis J. Heney, the San Francisco graft prosecutor, and Mrs. Heney.

Governor Hughes is expected in Oyster Bay either at the end of this week or next week, after Mr. Roosevelt returns from Cambridge.

The three Rough Riders—Borein, McKinley and Emerson—donned their uniforms in New York last sunrise, were ferried across the East River, and then rode all the way to Oyster Bay on cow ponies. They bore the Rough Riders' dearest possessions, the two regimental flags which they carried in their charge up San Juan Hill. Colonel Roosevelt was sitting on the veranda waiting. When he saw them coming up the hill he walked down part way to meet them. The cavalrymen saluted him in military fashion, and Colonel Roosevelt returned the salute.

Colonel Roosevelt returned the salute. "Colonel," said Captain Borein, "we have brought back the standards to the man who is best fitted to keep them. Colonel Roosevelt replied that he would treasure the colors always. One of them he had lent to the Rough Riders for their celebration yesterday."

YOUNG MINISTER ORDAINED. Interesting Service in First Presbyterian Church at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., June 24.—The ordination service at the First Presbyterian Church last night, setting apart to the gospel ministry Frank A. Brown, of this city, was of a very impressive character. A large number of his friends being present to do honor to the occasion.

He was then examined by the Presbytery of Norfolk in the afternoon by his studies and religious experience, and found qualified in those particulars. A large number of his friends being present to do honor to the occasion.

The theme of his trial sermon was "Christ and Him Crucified." It was a high, thoughtful discourse, and being entirely satisfactory to the presbytery.

history, the ordination ceremonies were preceded with.

Rev. Mr. Brown leaves next month for the Far East as a missionary, going first to Japan, then to Korea, and then to China, the last named country being the field in which he is to work permanently. He is a native of Norfolk, and is a member of the First Presbyterian Church, this city. He is a young man of notable physique and great promise, and is making what is believed by his friends to be a large sacrifice of the possible career in this country for the hardships of the life of a foreign missionary.

were candidates for the Republican nomination of the district in the primaries of June 4.

Unless attorneys for Dr. Black appeal to the higher courts, the vote announced by the county commissioners shortly after the primary stands, and Representative Dalzell receives the nomination.

Black Filed Petition. Dalzell claimed the congressional nomination over Black by 197 votes, and Black contested the election by filing a petition with the county commissioners claiming fraud in sixty-six precincts. The petition was granted, and the commissioners had opened eight ballot boxes and were recounting the votes. It is stated positively that Dr. Black now will run independently against Mr. Dalzell in the district. Dr. Black already has been endorsed by the prohibitionists.

In his opinion, avers that the charges of fraud brought by Dr. Black were not specific, and were insufficiently supported.

SEVEN NEW BRITISH PEERS. Honors for W. D. Pearson, W. Foster and Christopher Furness.

London, June 24.—Seven peers were created in honor of the birthday of King George, which was celebrated to-day, although the King was born on June 3. The new peers include Sir Walter Foster, a noted physician and member of Parliament for the Heston division of Middlesex; Sir Christopher Pearson, president of S. Pearson & Son, Ltd., and eldest son of the late George Pearson, and Sir Christopher Furness.

Sir Christopher Furness is the great nephew of the Duke of Devonshire, and as a Liberal, represented the constituency of Harlepool in Parliament from 1900 to 1903.

He was unseated last May by the court and his recent election declared void on the ground that there had been illegal payments made through his agents. The court stated that Sir Christopher was not personally guilty of corrupt practices, but that he must suffer for the acts of his agents.

Among the baronets created is Harold Harmsworth, brother of Lord Northcliffe. The long list of knights includes A. T. Quiller-Couch, the author.

Will Not Fly in U. S. Aviator De Lesseps Arrives in New York.

New York, June 24.—Count Jacques de Lesseps, the famous canal builder, and the aviator who, in a Blériot aeroplane, flew across the English Channel in record time, arrived on the Deutschland yesterday accompanied by his brother, Count Bertrand de Lesseps, and his sister, Countess Helen de Lesseps.

Count Jacques is on his way to Montreal for one week's aviation under the auspices of the Aeronautic Association of Canada.

"The Curtiss flight for the World's $10,000 prize from Albany to New York City, which was made in 1909, was a record," said Count Jacques. "I want to congratulate Paulhan's experience. I want no trouble with the Wrights."

The Wright brothers should get their dues, but he does not deny that they have lost prestige by their action, and they can never monopolize the air.

The Countess de Lesseps has never been up in an aeroplane, but said: "My brother has ordered a two-seater. I am going to take it to take up as his first passenger."

THIS BABY IS A SAMSON. Aged Ten Months, Lifts 10 Pounds and Performs on Trapeze.

Boston, June 24.—Massachusetts has a strong baby of its own in Thomas H. Bates, Jr., weight twenty-nine pounds and age ten months. Baby Bates every day does trapeze work and weight lifting. He swings on the trapeze almost as easily as he nestles in his mother's arms.

His best weight-lifting record is nineteen pounds. Two big weights hung on an iron rod are lifted by him every day. Bates' mother, Mrs. Bates, is a professional trapeze artist.

Baby Bates' marvellous strength became known to his parents two months ago.

HELD ON A GRAVE CHARGE. California University Professor Arrested for "White Slave" Trafficking.

San Francisco, June 24.—Senator Jose Haidgo, professor of Spanish at the University of California, former consul for Guatemala in Japan, exults of the fact that he is the author of works on aerial navigation, president of the University Aero Club, director of the Pacific Aero Club and belonging to many other social organizations, yesterday was held on a grave charge.

He will be held, pending the investigation by the grand jury and the police of the story told by Mrs. Grace B. Elfritz, known also as Mrs. Grace Carter, who yesterday was backed by the evidence in the possession of the police, accuses Haidgo of white slave trafficking.

According to the evidence, it is to be shown that Grace Carter, two years old, a magazine writer and once a reporter in Chicago, was accused by Haidgo as she tramped the streets penniless, and that he struck a bargain with the forlorn woman whereby he was to send male students of his classes to her, and was to divide with her the profits of her shame.

Repenting of her bargain, the woman told her story to Richard Barry, a magazine writer, who is on the coast investigating the white slave traffic. Barry told the police. Chief Martin, in turn, conferred with Foreman Goldman, of the grand jury, and a trap was set to catch Haidgo.

The professor denied the charges, claiming that all the propositions had come from the woman, and that he had never seen her since.

While Haidgo is being held, the Carter woman is being cared for by the matron at the city prison.

CLEVER THIEVES GET $5,000. Cut Hole in Bottom of Show Window in Private Bank in Boston.

Boston, June 24.—Five thousand dollars worth of Austrian and Italian paper currency was stolen from the private bank of Julius Rottenburg, in Salem Street, in the North End. The money was hidden in a show window. During the afternoon Victor Rottenburg, son of the proprietor of the bank, noticed that the cloth on which the money rested had been moved about. Investigation revealed that the thieves had cut a hole in the bottom of the show window, and then had reached up and taken the money.

FALLS ON WHITE HOT INGOT. Body of Pittsburg Steel Workman Entirely Consumed.

Pittsburg, June 24.—John Mitchell, a steel worker at the West Penn steel plant, at Brackenridge, fell into a soaking pit containing a white hot ingot, and before his helpless militancy the body was entirely consumed by the metal.

Mitchell was at work at the soaking pit where the steel ingots are treated. Standing on the door of one which was covered, he gave the signal for the opening of another pit. Through a mistake the door was pulled up, and Mitchell fell eighteen feet to the bottom of the pit, alighting on the ingot.

RAINS CAUSES AUTO DEATH. Guest of Americans at Nice Crushed to Death by Machine.

Nice, France, June 24.—An automobile, owned by a Mr. and Mrs. Henry Americans, and Mme. Matton, ran into a ditch and was overturned near Bastellane, in the Department of Alpes-Maritimes. The machine was badly injured. The latter's wife escaped unharm.

The Henrys spent the winter here. It was raining at the time of the accident. As Henry, who was driving the car, was on the road, the machine fell into the ditch, and the wife was killed.

Mrs. Henry
